

Mountain Attractions

Mount Evans

www.mountevans.com

The Mount Evans Scenic Byway is the road into the sky. A day trip to the top is a journey that climbs through nearly 9,000 feet of elevation gain, from the high plains of Denver through five climate zones to the 14,264-foot summit of Mount Evans – one of 54 peaks in Colorado that soar to 14,000 feet and above – the famous “fourteeners.”

Rocky Mountain National Park

www.nps.gov/room

Located 71 miles northwest of Denver, Rocky Mountain National Park features 400 square miles of scenic beauty, including Trail Ridge Road, the highest continuous highway in the world crossing the Continental Divide at over two miles above sea level. The park has two information centers, hundreds of miles of hiking trails, tranquil lakes, waterfalls, wildlife and horseback riding.

Pikes Peak

www.pikes-peak.com

The most visited mountain in North America Pikes Peak forms a stunning backdrop for Colorado Springs and the Garden of the Gods. At an altitude of 14,110 feet above sea level, Pikes Peak is the 31st highest peak out of 54 Colorado peaks. It is the farthest east of the big peaks in the Rocky Mountain chain, which contributed to its early fame among explorers, pioneers and immigrants and made it the symbol of the 1859 Gold Rush to Colorado with the slogan, "Pikes Peak or Bust".

Mountain Attractions

Summit County

www.co.summit.co.us/visitors

Summit County, Colorado offers a wide range of attractions in the summer months. From historical museums to cultural activities to vast wilderness areas. Summit County gained the nickname of “Colorado's Playground” for good reason. Breckenridge tourism ranges from black diamond ski runs to quiet hikes and mining history to the Historic District.

Vail

www.vail.com

Although known for its skiing, Vail is a beautiful place to visit in the summer as well. Vail is about 100 miles west of Denver on I-70 over Vail pass. There are lots of shops and restaurants as well as you can ride the ski Gondola to the top of the mountain. You can walk, bike or ride back down. The Vail Valley has many great golf courses with fantastic views.
